H. MOSER & CIE. 02

Endeavour Flyback Chronograph Dual Time Date

Ref. 1730-1200

MRP
₹ 75,20,000

AVAILABLE

WHY IT STANDS OUT

The H. Moser & Cie. Endeavour Flyback Chronograph Dual Time Date challenges the long-held assumption that additional complications must inevitably lead to a more crowded dial. Bringing together a flyback chronograph, dual-time display, and date indication, it delivers an impressive level of functionality while preserving the visual restraint that has become synonymous with H. Moser & Cie. The turquoise fumé dial is the watch's defining feature, offering remarkable depth and vibrancy while maintaining an uncluttered appearance rarely seen in this category. Instead of relying on conventional subdials, all chronograph indications are positioned centrally, creating a display that feels intuitive and exceptionally easy to read. A discreet white-arrow GMT indication integrates seamlessly into the composition, reinforcing the watch's travel-oriented purpose without disturbing its elegant balance. The alligator nubuck strap complements the contemporary character of the piece, lending warmth and refinement to the steel case. Powering the watch is the manually wound HMC 730 calibre, which delivers a substantial 72-hour power reserve while integrating all three complications within a remarkably clean mechanical architecture.

GERALD CHARLES 03

Maestro 2.0 Meteorite

Ref. GC2.0-SSPS-MT04-RSVC_DLE

MRP
₹ 34,70,000

AVAILABLE

WHY IT STANDS OUT

- The Maestro 2.0 Meteorite, the Maison’s first meteorite timepiece to feature a small-seconds indicator, is a 100-piece limited edition crafted in a polished stainless-steel case, powered by the ultra-thin Swiss Manufacture automatic Calibre GCA2011 and water-resistant to 100 metres, distinguished by its striking two-level Muonionalusta meteorite dial that brings a truly cosmic character to the watch.
- A striking dual-layer construction — a thin slab of meteorite above an aluminum silver baseplate. Radial apertures pierce the dial to expose the charged baseplate beneath, evoking the shockwaves of impact. Roman numerals and indexes appear shifted, tilted, displaced as though physically pushed aside by the force of the blast.
- The white Velcro strap is a true testament to innovation and craftsmanship. Designed with maximum comfort in mind and crafted in-house in Geneva, the strap is hand-stitched and includes an iron core, ensuring both flexibility and strength. The easy removal system allows customers to effortlessly change the strap, offering a personalized and convenient experience, while maintaining the Maison’s signature quality and attention to detail.
